

LESVOS IN THE COLOR OF WATER

19-26.JULY.2009
MOLYVOS, LESVOS

Water color paintings and drawings of Molyvos, Petra and Mytilene by Japanese artist who loves Lesvos

Shoko Kawamasa

Artist –Writer

President of Organization Αιωνόβια Δένδρα

Shoko came to visit Lesvos many times since 1974. In 2007, after the shock of the wild fire, she founded a group of Japanese who love Greece. Since then her group organized many activities in Japan to help recovery of the forestry in Greece. She is based in Tokyo Japan.

Molyvos Morning

There will be some acrylic paintings too.

They are mainly of Molyvos & Petra. The one on the right “ Molyvos Morning” is a painting of a small church in the Molyvos town near the castle.

Old houses in Mytilene

Shoko loves old houses in Mytilene and made many watercolor drawings.

With lovely color and pale shade, her drawings captured feeling of olden days of Mytilene.
